To Christian Parents and godly housholders, grace and mercie in Christ.

THe blessing of God powred vpon this Realme, in so great abundance, as the preaching of the Gospel, peace, prosperitie and wealth, vnder the rule & gouernment of our mercifull Queene, causeth me in that respect to ioy. But the contempt & abuse of these blessings, mingleth my ioy with griefe, and causeth Gods children for sorrowe to mourne and lament. And this greining of Gods spirite in his children, shall Fathers of Children, and Maisters of housholdes (though many others doe grieuously offende) especially answere for before God. The great blessinges sent of God, the laws made by the Prince, the word preached by the Ministers take small effecte, and bringe forth litle fruite, because Parentes and Maisters shew such examples of loose libertie in their liues, and throwe the reynes of licence vnloose into the neckes of others. They remember not the honorable calling, whiche they haue of the Lorde, that he hath placed them them, as it were in his owne roome, and giueth them his owne names, that they might gouerne, teach, and direct others, to honour and serue him, vpon whom their preheminence doeth wholy depende. But (alas) they doe not their dutie in gouerning, they apply not themselues in teaching them that are committed to their charge, and therefore youth not gouerned nor taught, not praying at home, can not pray, nor learne in the congregation. But as the deuises of men are ready to finde excuses, so seeke they vp figge leaues in this, to couer their shame. First they will say, We giue them meate and money for their worke: what should we doe more? So doe you bestowe vpon your beasts, in buying and feeding them: but your seruants are more precious in the eye of the Lord: and you are charged in the fourth commaundement to see that they serue God. Some say, they send them to the Church on the Sabboth, and so answere that charge. But the Lord commaundeth you your selues also to rehearse his lawes to your children and household. Doe so, if they plead ignorance, it will be but a weake answere to the Lord. Some say, they are ashamed to teach and praye with their household. Yes I say, because it is good, they are shamed, else, euery thing they are ready to performe with brasen browes in open places. Some saye; it is hypocrysie to perfourme their dutie: Let such pray for new hearts, for if their owne consciences condemne them of hypocrisie: God is greater then their consciences. Some saye it will let and hinder their seruantes from worke, as Pharaoh obiecteth to Moses. Exod. 5. 4. But our saviour answereth such in his answere to Martha. Luke 10. 41. (This I speake not to nurse any in idlenesse: for such shoulde not eate. 2. Thes. 3. 10.) Some saye they shall bee scorned by worldlinges: If ye seeke to please men, you are not the seruantes of Christ. Galat. 1. 10. Yet this was Christes portion, & they are but fayre souldiers that flee for a worde, for we must buckle with the Diuell hande to hande: who will not leaue vs till death except by Apostasie we yeelde him both bodyes and soules. Some doe saye, that they can not bringe the vnlearned in letters to this knowledge: but they doe not remember, that God giueth knowledge of his mysteries, euen to the simple that feare him, Psalme. 25. 14. And in foure monethes space I haue seene their principles and answeares, learned by Seruantes, Housekeepers, Shepherdes prearder, Carters, Milkemaydes, Kitchin boyes, & all in that houshould (where these orders were obserued) except three or foure, whose capacitie was but meane and simple, and yet the simplest went not without some profite. Some saye, youth are so stubborne, that they will abide no such orders: I say, better is it roome of such than their companye. For the admonitions appointed by the Lord, win them not, auoyde them: and so shalt thou auoyde the infecting of the rest of thy houshold by them, so shalt thou make others in feare, so shalt thou by making them ashamed of their sinnes, driue them to repentance, and principally thou shalt auoide Gods iudgment against thee and thy houshould. If thou knowest that thou keepest an ignorant and superstitious papist, a blasphemous swearer, a disobedient subiect to God, Prince and ruler, a licentious and loose liues, which giueth his body to fighting, whoring, and stealing: and his tongue to quarelling, filthy talking, and lying, and thou seeke not to reforme him by the order of GOD: doest thou not make thy house his stewes, and thy selfe his bawde? Remoue such, least God remoue thee: let not [illegible] in vaine, that the plague shall neuer [illegible] thy house, while the weather [illegible] full of plagues? Will not the Lorde performe that, which hee hath spoken by the prophet Zacharie.5. That there shall remaine a plague in such houses, to consume them with the timber and stones thereof? I would they would consider, what GOD said to Eli in the like case: Them honourest thy children above me, therefore I will cut them & thee off. The comfort hee had of his youthes in the ende was this: the arke (the witnesse of the Lords presence) was lost, thirtie thousand of the people slayne, his two sonnes killed: this lived hee to heare, and so in sorrowe he fell backwarde and brake his necke: then his daughter in lawe fell in travel, and in travell died: the remnant of his house were gladde to crouch and begge for a small peece of silver, and a morsell of bread. If our Englishmen could beholde these so plagues, the removing of Religion from a people, that shall bring foorth fruite of it, the taking away of our Queene, the wayling of their wives, the murdering of their children, and the eating of their owne entrails by strangers, they would lende their eares unto them. O Fathers of children and housholders, if you will not be forehande with your sinnes before Gods judgement seate, your children, your children, your selves, indeede ready to bee condemned, for sending your posteritie to begge at straungers doores: for spoyling your children of their liues: this realme, of religion, Queene, and peace: & that you should see there your children, wiues, Countrye, Churche of GOD, and Queene accusing you for murtherers, and traytoures? what will you answeare? what can you saye, Turne your musicke to mourning, your feasting to fasting, your rioting to repenting: and saye with Dauid, and with Daniel. 2. Sam. 12. 13 Dan. 6. 11. We haue sinned and committed iniquity, don wickedly and haue rebelled against thee O Lord, righteousnes belongeth vnto thee, and vnto vs open shame and confusion of faces. Saye with the men. Act. 2. 37. and with Paul. Act. 9. 9 saye: Lord what shall we doe? And you shalbe taught to ioyne amendment to repentance: you (I saye) which were wont to aske, howe you should passe the long winter euenings without gaming, shall learne to turne your playing at cardes and Dice, and dauncing, to singing of Psalmes teaching your household, & praying with them. It is enough (as Peter saith, 1. Peter 4. 3.) that you haue spent the times past after the fashion of the world and how ill, mad, or straunge they account of the matter, that you runne not with them them to the former excesse of riot, say you, and perforce with Iosua. 24. 15. We and our housholds will serue the Lorde. And you, O Ladies, mistresses & dames, say euery one of you with Hester, I and my maides wil do the like. Hester. 4. 16. And howsoeuer the world condemne you, the Lord wil reueale himselfe vnto you, power his blessings of knowledge, of peace, of religion, of good rulers, and will continue the same vnto the remnant of our children & posterite, which shall come after vs, which he graunt for his Christes sake.

These are the orders which I haue seene obserued in a Christian Gentlemans house, to the profit of his housholde, example of others, comfort of Gods children, and honour of God.

While they had a minister the whole houshold met at the Church twise euery Sabboth, and once euery weeke day: but since the retraint of their minister, they meete euery morning in the week day in the parlour, where their master kneeleth downe with them, and prayeth vsing these prayers following.

The confession of sinnes, with morning prayer for priuat houlholders, for men before their labour, for the Church, the Realme, the Queene, and Magistrates, the Lordes prayer, and confession of faith, all which prayers are in the booke of common prayer.

If he be from home, or sicke, then doth his Steward, or some such like of them say these prayers.

After prayers the houshold departeth either whither necessitie of their offices call them, or whither delight in honest exercises for recreation doth cary them.

Before prayer meditate of these places.

Prou. 1, 28. They shall call vpon me, but I will not answere: they shall seeke me early, but they shall not finde me.

Because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the feare of the Lord.

Iam. 4.3. You aske & receiue not because you aske amisse, that you might consume it on your lustes.

Rom. 8.26. The spirit helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray for, as we ought, but ye spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27. But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth the meaning of the spirit, for he maketh request for the Saintes, according to the will of God.

At meales the Maister sayeth grace, both before and after.

Prayers before meales.

GOd Lord bleſſe vs, bleſſe all thy creatures, send vs wone thy holy spirit into our hearts, & so direct vs, that we may looke for the spirituall food of our soules, & finally, euerlasting ioyes through thy sonne Iesus Christ. Amen.

In meale tyme some one of the seruantes readeth a Chapter of the Bible distinctly and reuerently, first praying thus:

GOd, whose word is a two edged sword, to cut asunder all thinges that shal rise vp against thy name, we make the vnworthy seruantes [illegible] earth, also against thy sonne prouide and haue affections being cut downe we may with reuerence receiue it, and humbly in obedience submit our selues vnto it, through Iesus Christ our Lord. So bee it.

Iesus

Or this.

O Lord, which hast prouided these earthly creatures, for the feeding of our naturall bodies; direct vs carefully to seeke, and with delight to eat of thy most holy word, that we may by that immortall seede, be begotten to be thy children, and therby be nourished and fed, vntil we become perfect men in thy sonne Christ Iesus. So be it.

A sentence to be said after the Chapter.

Blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

After meales be carefull for thy selfe, as Iob was for his children. Cha. 1. 5. And in meditation of thy wordes, thy behauiour, and vse of Gods creatures, say:

O Lord if thou marke what is said, or done amisse, who shalbe able to abide it? Forgiue vs our sinnes, & amend our imperfections, and graunt vs the grace of thy holy spirit, as thou hast fed vs plentifully, that we may serue thee faithfully. Preserue the King & his folke, saue the Church vniuersall, graunt vs Gospell alwes passage, confound and all heresies, finish some these dayes of sinne bring vs to everlasting peace: through thy sonne Iesus Christ our Lord. So be it.

The serving men likewise haue grace before and after meales, and a Chapter reade before they rise.

After they haue supped, the officers haue done in their offices, they come together the Parlour or Hall, and there spend one houre in singing Psalmes, learning and answering some few of these poinctes of Religion, and praying.

Remember to sing Dauids Psalmes with Dauids spirit.

1. Cor. 14. 15. Sing with the Spirit and sing with vnderstanding.

A Prayer vsed in the evening before Catechising.

O Lorde prepare our hearetes to prayer, for if we pray with our lips onely, our prayer is abhominable. Teach vs by thy holy spi-rite to pray rightly according to thy will, and to come to our calling.

We hartily thanke thee (O merciful father) for all thy blessings bestowed vpon vs, from the beginning of the world vnto this time, for our creation, our redemption, our sanctification and continuall preservation, namely for

for that thou hast kept vs this day from all perils and dangers both of soule and body, and hast giuen vnto vs health, foode, apparell, and many other blessings, which many of thy deare children doe lack, being notwithstanding as precously bought with ỹ blood of thy deare sonne, as we are, and ye lie in misery and calamitie pyned with hunger and thirst, in imprisonment or banishment: in which case (deare Father) thou mightest haue left vs, sauer that in mercie thou hast dealt otherwise with vs then with them. We beseech thee to direct vs (in considering thy mercies) to acknowledge and confesse our sinnes, which should prouoke thee rather to curse then to blesse vs, to confound vs rather thā to preserue vs. We haue sinned against thee both in deed, worde, and thought: graunt vs, that we seeing the horror of our sinnes, and fiercenes of thy wrath, may without hypocrisie and dissimulation be earnestly sorie, & heartily repentant for our former wickednesse: graunt vs, that in sorow for sin we fal not with Cain, Saul, & Iudas, to despaire: but ỹ in the bitternesse of our griefe with Dauid and Peter we may haue comfort by faith in thy sonne Christ, that our offences are forgiuen. And as thou hast brought vs hither together at this time, (for which we heartily thanke thee,) so ger to direcre vs, that wee may haue ioy and comfort in the presence and company one of an other, and that our wordes and hearts may be le uered at this time, that we may truely direct and reuerently receiue the principles of thy ho ly religion to the strengthening of our faith, to the comfort of our consciences, to the amend ment of our sinfull and lewd liues, and to the glorie of thy most holy name, through Je sus Christ our Lord. A

FINIS.

WEe heartely thanke thee, O mercifull Father, for that thou haſt beſtowed the eſtimable treaſure of thy holy worde vpon vs moſt vile and ſinfull wretches. And ſith it is not in him that plaunteth, nor in him that watereth but in thy mercifull hand, to mortifie our ſinfull luſts, & to create new hearts in vs: we beſeech thee ſo to order & direct vs, ỳ we proue not like the greene figge tree flouriſhing without fruite, nor be of the number of thoſe hypocrites which with tongue can ſay, Lorde, Lorde, in thy name we can prophecie, caſt out deuils, and doe many great workes, and yet are condemned for wicked, becauſe their hearts are not right: nor like to them, which are ſwept and garniſhed, but emptie, whereunto the vncleane ſpirit returnes with ſeuen worſe then himſelfe, and ſo our end be worſe then our beginning: But gouerne vs with thy ſpirite, that in heart we may loue and feare thee, and in body and ſoule obey and ſerue thee in righteouſneſſe and holineſſe all the daies of our life. And here we offer vp vnto thee our liues, our ſoules, our bodies, our liues, and all that we haue, in aſſurance, that that cannot periſh, which is committed to thee. Take vs into thy hande, and keepe vs this night, that our

our bodies may sleepe, & our soules may watch for the comming of thy Son Christ, that so both our bodyes and soules may be the more apt and the better able to serue thee, in that estate and calling, wherin it shall please thee to place vs. As we pray for our selues, so we beseech thee to looke with fauour vpon the whole Church, increase the number of thy children, graunt the Gospel a free passage, comfort the comfortlesse, raise vp them that are fallen, and strengthen them that stand, that they fall not: haue mercie vpon this Realme, long continue thy blessings of peace and quietnesse towards vs, and remoue farre from vs all lettes and hinderances of the same. Gouerne the hearts and the wordes of all Maiestrates, that they may not lift vp themselues in vaine glory to please themselues, but that they may apply the authoritie which thou hast giuen them, to the aduancement of thy glorie, for the comfort of thy children, and the terror of thine enemies. And sith the continuance of our peace (in these our dayes) next vnder thee, consisteth in the preseruation of our King, blesse vs with him, and blesse him with all giftes fitte for so high a calling: and whosoeuer shall attempt, deuise, or conspire aught against his maiesties person, crowne, dignitie, and royall estate, we beseech thee in mercie to conuert

rrect them speedily, or in iudgement to con-fond them, that we may vnder him lead a quiet and a peaceable life in al godlines and honestie.
Counsel y counsellers, or ver the nobles, direct the magistrats, instruct the ministry, guid and gouern the whole body of this common wealth, that we may ioyne together in humblenesse of hart, and vnity of mind, to seeke the glory of thy name, the encrease of thy kingdome, the establishing of thy truth, the rooting vp of sinne, the maintenance of vertue, & the long continuance of the prosperous estate of this common wealth.
Haue mercy vpon them that bee in affliction in body or in minde, namely our brethren, which suffer for the testimony of a good conscience ey-ther in France, Flaunders, or vnder any other tyrant, allwage their sorrowes, and mitigate their miseries spedily, if it be thy wil, or arme them with patience to abide such tryall as thou shalt lay vpon them. Let their examples teach vs to humble our selues vnder thy hand, knowing that thou canst turne our prosperitie to aduersitie, our pleasure to payne, our peace to warres, wealth to sickes, & life to death, when thou shalt thinke good: the harts & the hands of the Atheists and the Papistes are as ready vnto their sworde to pearce our sides, & their ripe knives to cut our throats, & our sins with as are to prouoke.

take thy wrath, saue that mercie thou beeft spare vs, and with thy mightie hand doeft hold them backe from exacting their bloody deſire. Forgiue vs our ſins, & continue thy mercie towards vs. But if it be thy will, to deliuer vs vp to their hands, thy will be fulfilled, and whatſoeuer become of our goods, body, or life, we beſeech thee, that with patience we may poſſeſſe our ſoules, and in conſtancie continue thy children to our liues end, that at our laſt breath we may yeeld our ſoules into thy hand, for thou O Lord God of truth haſt redeemed thē. For theſe things, and what elſe thou knoweſt needfull for vs or thy whole Church, this night or any time of our life hereafter, wee ſue to thee in the name of thy ſonne Chriſt, ſaying as he hath taught vs:

Our Father, &c.

O Lord increaſe and ſtrengthen our faith, & grant vs a perfect continuance therein to our liues end, (for) but make our humble confeſſiō, ſaying, I beleeue in God. If any of the houſhold offend the holy inmates, (all God) are admonished by theſe fellowes: if admonition not the maſter is made priuie vnto it.

Pſal. 101. 6. Mine eyes ſhall be to the faithfull of the land that they may dwell with mee, he that walketh in a perfect way he ſhall ſerue mee.

7. There ſhal no deceitfull perſon dwel within my houſe: he that telleth lies, ſhal not remaine in my ſight.
